OUR HISTORY

Camp Geshher was founded in 1963 when a group of Labour Zionists envisioned a program that would foster creativity, an appreciation of social justice issues and the ideals of kibbutz life. Geshher was formerly part of the Jewish youth movement Dror that eventually merged together with Habonim to become one of the largest Zionist youth movements world-wide.

OUR CHEVRE

This summer we hosted Dror-Habonim chevra from Camp Kvutza, Camp Revivm and the founders of our beloved Machaneh Geshher. Over 150 alumni and their families joined the celebration. Among them were Victor Priel (Geshher's first rosh, 1963) alongside members of his tzevet and chanichim of our starting summers and Menashe Yarkoni, whose family signed the documents to purchase the beautiful property overlooking the breathtaking Lake Pringle we

Our 50th Reunion

This past August marked 50 wonderful years of Camp Geshher. Alumni and their families joined us for a weekend reliving the magic that shaped the people we've become - the spirit we all remember. The first head of camp from 1963 was in attendance with some of his former campers from our founding years. Some of our favourite memories from the weekend include yoga, henna, painting rain barrels, loud-lunches, sing-a-longs, and more! We're looking forward to another 50 inspiring years,
